

Terms and Conditions

Code of Conduct for Students and Parents/Caregivers:

All students must wear loose fitting clothing suitable to move in, preferably black. We encourage all of our students to wear the Bright Ballroom t-shirt for our classes for company spirit. A full line of uniform is available.

All students should bring a named bottle of water each week.

Please ensure students are dropped off and collected punctually and promptly.

Persistent lateness will not be accepted, and late pick-ups will likely incur fees to cover teacher time and venue hire.

We must be notified if any child plans to go home alone who does not usually.

Please report all absence as soon as possible, this includes planned absence such as holidays, family celebrations etc.

Bright Ballroom is not liable for any loss or damage of personal items brought on site.

Parents are not permitted to stay within the premises for Bright Ballroom unless this has been agreed in advance with the Principals. This is so as not to create an imbalance between our students or distract their training. We have frequent demo days and performances. We will accept, due to the students ages, parents wishing to remain in the foyer area during our younger group sessions for the first few weeks should they wish to do so.

Parents must notify Bright Ballroom of any changes to contact or medical details.

Any form of abuse will not be tolerated and dealt with promptly and sufficiently by the Designated Safeguarding Lead and Principals of Bright Ballroom.

Any complaints should be made directly to Bright Ballroom Principals.

Bright Ballroom follows a strict Privacy Policy, Safeguarding and Child Protection Policy and a Photography and Video Policy. All parents should make themselves aware of the policies in full.

Teaching Staff:

Bright Ballroom reserves the right to change the teaching staff whenever necessary.

Fees:

All fees must be settled before the beginning of term unless a payment plan is agreed with the principals of Bright Ballroom. Fees can be paid by cash or bank transfer. Bright Ballroom will not offer refunds for missed sessions.
